

WILSON TRAPPED, EVIDENCE SHOWS

Farmer on Trial in Circuit Court on Charge of Selling Liquor to Robert Hinshaw

WM. HINSHAW SET THE TRAP

Defendant Fined Few Months Ago On Charge of Illegal Possession of Liquor

Bert Wilson, a farmer living just northeast of this city on the Coleman farm, was on trial today in the circuit court on a grand jury indictment, charging him with the illegal sale of liquor.

There was not much trouble experienced in obtaining a jury, and there were only a few witnesses summoned, several of whom were character witnesses for the defense.

The defendant is charged in the indictment with having sold a pint of liquor April 5 to Robert Hinshaw. The defendant was "trapped" by William Hinshaw, father of the person to whom the alleged sale was made, according to the evidence presented today.

The parent accompanied his son to the farm residence where the liquor was alleged to have been bought, and he in turn presented the case to the grand jury.

Wilson formerly lived at 826 North Sexton street in this city, and was found guilty several months ago of unlawful possession of liquor, and received a stiff fine.

The jury today that was hearing the case, consisted of the following twelve men: John Kirkpatrick, Charles Caldwell, A. P. Waggoner, J. E. Harrison, Oliver Norris, Elmer Caldwell, Ott Mead, S. C. Kirkpatrick, George Monjar, J. A. D. Waggoner, Will Abercrombie and Merrill Ball.

A suit on a contract was filed today in court by Charles E. Redington against Adam Richey, et al., in which the demand is for $750 judgment. The complaint alleges that a contract was entered into between the parties, in connection with the construction of the William Redenbaugh road, for the grading and building of culverts.

The suit alleges that the contract price for this work was to be $3,130, and was to be paid in installments as the work was completed. The suit alleges that the work has long since been completed and that the defendants owe him $600 on the contract, and with interest and costs, he is demanding judgment for $750.

Alienation Suit of Miller vs. Miller Settled at Newcastle

The alienation suit of Edna Hardin Miller against her father and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Miller, all of this county, was compromised in the Henry circuit court today for $2,250, the defendants to pay the costs, which amount to $365.

Mrs. Miller, who alleged in a complaint filed in the Rush circuit court, that her husband's parents had alienated his affections, was awarded a judgment of $4,500 by a jury in the court here. The defendants were granted a new trial and the case was taken to Henry county in a change of venue.

COLLEGE HEAD IN CLOSING ADDRESS

Charles T. Paul Tells Final Session of State Church Convention of Need For Missionaries

CRITICIZES U. S. LAW MAKERS

Says Congress Wants International Brotherhood Practiced as Long as Brothers Stay at Home

The College of Missions had charge of the closing program Thursday afternoon at the 85th annual state convention of Christian churches, at the Main Street Christian church and missionary work in all of its various phases was taken up and discussed, with the main address being delivered by Charles T. Paul, president of the college.

A delegation of 30 students from the college at Indianapolis came in a body for the afternoon program, and occupied seats on the rostrum.

The College of Missions' quartet was on the program for several selections. Messages from the Orient were brought to the convention by two students at the college, Y. C. Lee speaking for his native home of China, and T. Nakarar speaking for Japan.

Missionaries also were introduced, and responses were made briefly by Rex Hopper for China and Miss Minnie Nicholson, representing India.

Dr. Paul in his address stated that his purpose was to put before the convention people the general background of the environment of the missionary, and the contrast that they encounter between their surroundings left in this country, and the surroundings that they encounter in the mission field.

"What we want to do is to find out what is inside of the Oriental mind," he said, "and to interpret it into the people at home. Today we are discussing international brotherhood, with the purpose of extending Christianity into all lands, but this can never be accomplished until we learn about brotherhood, and treat the Continued on Page Three

ALMOST TRAPPED IN BURNING HOUSE

Chicken Brooder in Upstairs Room Almost Suffocates Family of William Kiser

FARMERS WORK HEROICALLY

The residence occupied by William Kiser, north of Rushville, and west of Raleigh, was threatened by fire early this morning, and the family almost suffocated. A brooder that was placed in an upstairs room caught fire, and was making rapid headway, when the family was awakened by the dense smoke that filled the house.

The fire was discovered about two o'clock this morning, and neighbors rushed to their assistance. For a time it was believed that the dwelling would be destroyed, but the brooder was taken from the room through a window, by using a rake.

After the smoke had settled, the neighbors formed a bucket brigade, and managed to keep the flames confined to the one room. The loss includes 150 chickens, and practically all of the contents of the room that was on fire.

LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD

READS POETIC BOOKS OF BIBLE

Dr. H. H. Halley Says Ecclesiastes Especially Shows Utter Vanity of All Things Earthly

READS SONG OF SOLOMON

Not Higher Critic, Reader Asserts, But Can't Understand Why it is a Part of the Bible

Dr. H. H. Halley of Chicago read from memory four books of the Old Testament and one from the New Testament, at a union prayer meeting of churches at the Main Street Christian church Thursday night, having remained over for the meeting after attending the state convention of Christian church, where he had charge of the devotional exercises.

He proved to be the same Dr. Halley that he was when he conducted a two weeks union meeting here during the past winter, his voice and mode of speaking, and his personality having the same soothing effect and the same benign influence that it did when he was here before, and aroused a new and greater reverence for the teachings of the Bible.

Dr. Halley read the books of Job, Ecclesiastes, the Song of Solomon and Ruth from the Old Testament and Paul's Epistle to Philemon from the New Testament.

"Job is a discussion in poetic language of the problem of human suffering," he said. "Job's friends thought that if we were great sufferers, we were great sinners, but the lesson of the book is that Job, out of the patient endurance of his soul, came to see God and was abundantly rewarded."

Dr. Halley stated that Ecclesiastes was in the Bible to show us the utter vanity of all things earthly aside from immortality. It was written by Solomon, he pointed out, who was powerful and had all of the money and pleasure that any man could have, but he did not know anything about the hereafter.

"The book is a sort of a mournful complaint," he continued. "It is in the Bible to show us that human nature is not exactly satisfied even with the best in this life."

Of the five poetic books in the Old Testament, he explained, Solomon wrote three—one of them the Song of Solomon.

Tire is Lost, Found and Then Stolen From FINDER

William Hardwick, who runs a motor bus between Rushville and Brookville, suffered the misfortune to lose a spare tire. That was bad enough in itself, but to be informed that it was found and a few hours later that it had been stolen from the finder, is adding insult to injury.

The tire dropped off the bus near Laurel Wednesday, U. S. Flarity of the Citizens Motor Car company, Indianapolis, found it and told Charles Ellerman, as he was passing through Rushville, of his find and left his address. Mr. Ellerman notified Mr. Hardwick, who had missed the tire, and he called Mr. Flarity, who said that he would ship it to Rushville.

Two hours afterwards, Mr. Flarity called by telephone and said that when he went to the garage to get the lost tire, he found that it and his automobile had been stolen.

DENIES BOND ISSUE FOR HARRISON STREET

State Tax Board Upholds Remonstrance Against Issuing Bonds in The Sum of $85,920

PETITION FILED OCT. 9, 1920

The state tax board denied Rushville township permission to issue bonds in the sum of $85,920 to pave parts of Harrison and Eighth streets with concrete, according to word received here today.

The petition for the improvement which was known as the Otto E. Humes et al., highway, was first filed with the Rush county board of commissioners October 9, 1920, and asked for the paving of Harrison street from First to Eighth and of Eighth from Harrison to the Fort Wayne road, under the three-mile road law.

A remonstrance was filed against the bond issue for the improvement the petition having been accepted by the local board, and it was sustained by the state tax board, after a hearing, in 1921.

The effort to have the two streets paved was revived in 1923 and a new bond ordinance was published according to law. A notice to bidders was also filed and the contract was let to Lawrence and Ennis of Arlington. Another remonstrance was filed against the issuing of the bonds Continued on Page Six

ATTENDANCE WAS BEST IN HISTORY

Program at State Christian Church Convention Ending Friday Evening Also Most Inspiring

HOSPITALITY WAS WONDERFUL

Visitors Impressed by Cordial Treatment And Smooth Way in Which Entertainment Plans Worked

By Friday evening practically all of the delegates and visitors, here for the annual convention of Indiana Christian churches, had departed and all of them carried along the most pleasant memories of their stay in Rushville and the cordial hospitality which they met.

The following comment of C. W. Canble of Indianapolis, state corresponding secretary, was typical:

"The attendance has been the best of any convention we have ever held and the program the most inspiring. The hospitality has been wonderful."

This thought seemed to be in the mind of everyone who attended the convention. The words were on many lips.

None received or was entitled to more congratulations and praise than Mrs. Martha Grindle and members of her registration committee, who were responsible for the smooth way in which the entertainment of visitors in Rushville homes was accomplished.

This committee carefully planned the assignment of guests and the utmost care that was used resulted in the general accord which prevailed among the convention visitors.

The Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the host church, who extended the invitation to the convention at Frankfort last year, to meet here this year, and who bore a large share of the responsibility in completing arrangements for this year's convention, said that "Loyalty" was the thing that spelled success for the Rushville church. He said:

"The convention has run without faction and without friction. The great task we have undertaken and done can be accomplished by any one of our churches if they take for their watchword the one word that has spelled success for us. Put that word into our congregations and our brotherhood and we win. That word is 'Loyalty.'"

Included in the thirty-one visitors from the College of Missions in Indianapolis who attended the convention here yesterday were a number of interesting speakers and personal Continued on Page Seven

FARM BUREAU IS A BALANCE WHEEL

Perry Crane, State Secretary, Says Organization's Purpose is to Keep Balance on Production

SPEAKS FOR W. H. SETTLE

Tells of Success of Pools to Sell Farm Products—Wheat Pool Contracts Being Signed Here

The Indiana Farm Bureau is the organization which has for its purpose keeping a balance on production, it was declared by Perry Crane, secretary of the state bureau, who addressed a crowd of Rush county farmers Thursday night at the Graham high school building, in the interest of the wheat pool.

William H. Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau federation, who was scheduled to speak, was unable to be here, and Mr. Crane, responded in his place.

The wheat pool campaign was launched in Rush county Tuesday, when W. T. Martindale, district manager, arrived with three assistants to get farmers to sign up on the pool, and an effort is being made to have 40 percent of the Indiana acreage signed for the pool by May 24.

The movement in this county is making rapid progress, it was announced at the meeting last night, and the plan of the system was presented, and the endorsement of the state federation was made by Mr. Crane, the secretary, in his message to the farmers.

The fault with the farming business today, Mr. Crane stated, was the economic phase, or the system of marketing what the farmers raise. A survey of countries, parts of countries or states where this condition has been solved, has been studied by the state bureau, Mr. Crane said, and where successful, it has been found that people work together.

"Those are sections of the country," he said, "where the people know the meaning of co-operation—and they practice it." He pointed out the example of Denmark, where the practice of co-operation in all business has been carried on for generations, and the co-operative plan is more of a habit, than anything else, not only in farming, but in industry, banking and schools, where all people work together under a systematic plan.

Then coming closer to home, Mr. Crane cited the value of the co-operative marketing plan used by the California fruit growers, which at first was a complete failure, but which has overcome the mistakes, and today has caused the country to be a leading factor in the business.

Mr. Crane also showed how the co-operative plan had worked in Oregon, where the apple growers had perfected an organization to market their big crops, and this plan had been a decided success.

The speaker then told about the onion pool in northern Indiana, where a successful organization is marketing the output for several counties, and has prevented a serious loss to the farmers. He stated that one-fifth of the late onions raised in this country, come from Continued on Page Five

HACK IS CHOSEN DISTRICT HEAD

Shelbyville Attorney is Re-Elected Without Opposition as Democratic District Chairman

CONVENTION HERE TODAY

Leaders From District Formed Association With Several Prominent Politicians Present

Charles Hack, attorney of Shelbyville, was re-elected district chairman for the Sixth district, when the county chairmen of the democratic party, met here this afternoon to perfect the district organization.

Prominent democrats were here for the afternoon session, and several speeches were made following the business period and election of officers. The meeting was held in the assembly room of the court house, and a large crowd of democrats from over the district was here.

Walter Myers of Shelbyville was placed in as secretary for the meeting today, and before the election of officers, Frank McFall of Richmond acted as chairman.

Mr. Hack resumed the chairmanship, after he was elected without opposition.

The convention of chairmen also elected Mrs. J. E. Rade of Liberty as district chairman, and she responded with a short talk. The election of a secretary and treasurer for the district organization was left in the hands of Mr. Hack, the district chairman.

All eight counties in the district were represented with their chairmen, and the following were here: Horace Wilson, Hancock; Frank M. McFall of Wayne; Chester M. DeWitt, Henry; Fred Brown, Rush; William E. Flack, Franklin; Jess E. Stevens, Union; Frank W. Fagel, Shelby; and James A. Clifton, Fayette.

The chairmen also went on record pledging their support to Walter S. Chambers of Newcastle, for re-election as state chairman.

Mr. Chambers was among the politicians present, and he made a short response, following the pledge of the Sixth District organization.

MORGAN STREET WORK DELAYED BY THE I. & C.

Andrews Asphalt Co., Ships Steam Shovel Because No Effort is Made to Remove Tracks

MORGAN STREET IS BLOCKED

A delay in the construction of Morgan street paving is forecasted, following a decision of the Andrews Asphalt paving company, the contractors, who today shipped the steam shovel from the city to another job that is waiting construction.

The trouble seems to lie in the fact that the Indianapolis and Cincinnati traction company is making no effort to remove their tracks and comply with an ordinance which was agreed upon beforehand, that one of the tracks would be removed, and the single track laid in the center of the street.

The paving company has finished excavating all of the street, excepting between the tracks. The paving company has made rapid progress with the work, and has meant business since first starting. At the present time they are laying the concrete base on the south end of Morgan street, and can only finish three blocks until they reach the delay, caused by the car tracks. It is understood that unless something is done by that time, that the street will be left blocked until action is taken by the car company to continue with the paving.

The contractors have several big jobs ahead of them this summer, and it is understood they do not intend to remain here long if the work is held up. The entire street could be finished within a month, with the proper co-operation, it was stated today.

Tries Kellogg's Bran—restores health after 12 years of intense suffering

Mr. Firth writes that he suffered for 12 years from constipation and his friend for 10 years—a total of 22 years' suffering permanently relieved by Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled.

Gentlemen: For 12 years I had been troubled with indigestion caused mostly by constipation. Until about a year ago, I would suffer from 4 to 20 weeks at a time.

I happened to see your Krumbled Bran in a store, purchased a package and got almost immediate relief. I am still eating the Krumbled Bran every day.

The most wonderful results obtained with your Krumbled Bran I will now relate. A gentleman who has been taking medicine for about 10 years for constipation could not find anything to give him relief. Three weeks ago I advised him to try Krumbled Bran, as I had told him what wonderful results I had gotten from it. The gentleman in question purchased a box, and he told me that for the first time in ten years he is regular without taking medicine.

Yours for success,
William Firth, Jr., 56 Volan St., Merchantville, N. J.

Eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to relieve the most chronic case of constipation, or your grocer returns your money. Eat two table-spoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. The flavor is delicious. Try it in the recipes on every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

Child-birth

WHEN the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., writes: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait until today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., Bk-75, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE CLEARING WEATHER

Racing Drivers Entered in 500-Mile Speedway Event Get First Real Practice Runs

HENRY FORD TO REFEREE RACE

Indianapolis, May 15—Racing drivers entered for the 500-mile event at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway on Decoration Day today were taking advantage of clearing weather to get their first real practice runs around the big brick oval.

A gloomy and disgusted crowd of drivers shivered in unheated garages yesterday and watched the rain pour down.

The announcement that Henry Ford would referee the race was the one event of the day.

The drivers generally are of the opinion that the race this year will set a better time than the 1923 race. Last year for the first time the 122-inch displacement engines were tried out.

The race revealed numerous mechanical deficiencies in the engines of smaller displacement. The running time was slowed up and more cars than ever before broke down and went back to the pits.

Most of these mechanical weaknesses according to drivers, have been overcome and the pace this year is expected to be fast and furious.

Stephenson Faction Asked to Attend Meeting of Ku Klux Klan

Indianapolis, Ind., May 16—A possible effort to reconcile the rival factions of the Ku Klux Klan in Indiana was seen here today in the order of D. C. Stephenson directing his faction to attend a meeting called here for Sunday by Dr. H. W. Evans, imperial wizard and leader of the faction opposing Stephenson.

Stephenson sent orders to officers of each organization to attend the meeting by the rival leaders.

It was also regarded as possible that Evans had planned to coup to win over Stephenson's following and deprive him of his present sway over Indiana Klan affairs.

yellow people as brothers."

He criticized congress for only recently passing the immigration bill forbidding the people of Japan from moving here, and the speaker referred to this act as being contrary to the doctrines of international brotherhood.

The law makers, he said, want international brotherhood practiced, as long as the "brothers" remain on the opposite shore, some 10,000 miles distant.

Dr. Paul stated that he recently visited the orient, and gained much valuable information from his trip. He said that he could easily see the effect that western civilization is having on the eastern, and that this was clearly visible on the ship that took him across.

He said that the ship carried a cargo of 800 tons of American made cigarettes for the orient, and that a great quantity of this shipment was highly colored cigarettes especially appealing to the children.

There were musicians on the ship, he said, and also American lecturers, who were going over to China and Japan to spread their messages of intellect, and all of these American cultures, were being shifted from the west to the east, and were forming a part of the new civilization for the orient.

On that same ship, he continued, was the all star American baseball club, which played throughout the orient, and added that America was doing her part to spread athletics. He recalled witnessing a contest for tryouts in Japan for the Olympics, and stated that he could see the western influence on physical training, which was being worked in to the eastern atmosphere.

"This intellectual aspect," he said, "is also visible in the fact that the English language is gradually taking the place of their native tongues, and education among the children is far more advanced today." He stated that there are 40,000 college graduates in Japan, and he told about the school plans and laws of that country.

In discussing the orient, he also spoke about the Philippines, and the growth that they have made in the past 25 years, due to the influence of America. When the islands were under Spanish control, he said there were less than 400 schools and less than 2,000 teachers.

Today, 25 years after the United States assumed control, the school system has increased to 6,741 public schools, with an enrollment of a million and a quarter children. The government spends ten millions each year on education, he said.

All of these transfigurations, due to the transfer of western intellect and influence in the orient, he said, has made the work of the missionaries doubly hard. In the Philippines he said, the natives are clamoring for independence, and American missionaries must know how to handle the situation.

He stated that it was not surprising that the natives wanted an independent country, because they were being educated with American books and ideals, and that in their schools their histories had taught them the struggles of America, and the reviews of the lives of great Americans had buried their influence with them. They want a republic, the same as any country, Dr. Paul declared.

Missionaries are confronted with many questions concerning the Christian faith, which makes it difficult, because natives have a tendency to want to be convinced, and have to be shown, before admitting their faith, the speaker said.

The reading and writing in China have been improved in recent years, he said, and that country is becoming a part of the intellectual world. They have set about in China, he continued, to humanizing their literature all of which is the result of the western efforts upon the oriental minds.

The industrial aspect of Japan has changed according to the speaker and today that country has 23,000 factories and industries that are patterned after western models, and shows a rapid growth in that direction.

Even the labor element has worked its way into the minds of those people, he said, and the laboring man of Japan is beginning to think for himself, and associates in a broader sense with the capitalists. There are 671 labor unions in Japan, which will soon be dictating the wages and other business problems, he said.

Lastly, Dr. Paul asserted, there is a religious ferment that is traveling in the east from the west, and that Christianity is taking its place among them. The work, he said, is not accomplished in detail by any means, and that the appeal for more missionaries was never as urgent as it is today.

The speaker said that Buddhism was not dead in Japan, and that there were thousands of them left for the Christian missionaries, to convert, and that the work before them was extensive.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 15—Gladys Ellis, confessed slayer of Mrs. Lois Richards, teacher at the Indiana 'woman's prison' collapsed twice while on the witness stand in her trial in criminal court on a charge of murdering Miss Richards.

The girl collapsed once on one direct examination and again on cross examination.

"Now just tell the jury in your own way what happened when you and Miss Richards were struggling", Prosecutor Remy asked on cross examination.

The girl stared at him a moment, shrieked, and collapsed in the witness chair. Court was adjourned to permit physicians to revive her.

The case may go to the jury late today. The defense claims the girl was insane at the time of the murder.

BIBLE THOUGHT

Bible thoughts memorized will prove a priceless heritage in after years.

Rush County Hospitality

The people of Rush county have much for which to be congratulated because of the splendid way in which they cared for visitors in this city during the past week, who came for the 85th annual convention of the Christian churches of Indiana.

Every person who attended the church meeting will always have a very pleasant remembrance of the Rushville convention. The hospitality was of the character that leaves a lasting impression.

"The hospitality has been wonderful," said C. W. Caudle, corresponding secretary of the Indiana church organization. "The attendance has been the best of any convention we ever held."

These were the words that were heard on every side. The total absence of friction in the assignment of guests and the cordial treatment they received in Rushville homes gave them a most favorable idea of Rush county and her people.

Our guests had an opportunity to see the beautiful homes, the well kept premises, and to sense the general feeling of civic consciousness that expresses itself in pride of the home and its surroundings.

They also had a chance to get a glimpse of some of the commodious rural homes of Rush county and the rich, fertile ground in which Rush county takes just pride. They rode over some of Rush county's smooth roads and many of our guests decided that his was as near paradise as they could get on earth.

The Rev. L. C. Howe, pastor of the First church at Vincennes, quoted John Napier Dyer of Vincennes, who addressed a community meeting here once, as saying that if he could not

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The chickens aren't hatched yet, but they're already counted.

The tally-sheet of the advance count up at Democratic national headquarters certainly does look discouraging for the Republicans!

Out of 48 states, the Democratic dope-sheet for the coming election concedes the party of Lincoln and Garfield and Roosevelt just 10. That many, with a total of just 96 electoral votes, is conceded the G. O. P.

Of the remaining 38 states and 435 electoral votes, 23 states with 249 votes are confidently set down as safely Democratic.

Fifteen states having 186 votes are put into the "doubtful" column. These are the states where the battle royal will be waged to insure the additional 17 votes needed—on the face of this advance computation—and to pile up a safely substantial majority.

As evidence of Democratic "cock-sureness," one notes that in addition to the "Solid South" this dope sheet—made when the Democratic candidate is still anybody's bet—places in that party's "certain" column Arizona, Delaware, Indiana, Maryland, Missouri, Montana, New Jersey, New Mexico, Ohio and West Virginia.

These states, with their even 100 electoral votes, will, however, be as confidently claimed by Republicans.

Similarly, Republicans smile at Democratic "nerve" in presuming to list as "doubtful" the results in California, Connecticut, Illinois, Kansas, Massachusetts, Nebraska and Washington. Democrats, however, meet smile with smile and maintain they have an excellent fighting chance not only in these normally Republican strongholds, but also in Colorado, Minnesota, Nevada, North Dakota, Rhode Island and South Dakota.

go to heaven, he wanted to go to Rush county when he died. If this sentiment prevailed among convention visitors, we could scarcely ask more.

If the people of Rush county can always be as hospitable in the entertainment of visitors, as they were during the convention just closed, the county's hospitality will be a by-word throughout Indiana, just as is her reputation for being the largest hog-producing county in the world.

We like to boast of our material achievements and tell the world about what we have accomplished, but after all, nothing is quite so gratifying as to know that our efforts have been appreciated and that we are regarded as just "plain folks".

Plant a Tree

There are eighty-one million idle acres in the United States that are not fit for anything except the growing of trees.

And they go right on being idle for the want of anyone with enough foresight and interest in future generations to plant trees on them.

There is very little, if any, land in Rush county that will not produce something, but if there is, it is the patriotic duty of the owner of the land to put it to work growing trees.

Convincing statistics have been gathered to show that reforestation is the only hope of the United States, if its supply of timber is not entirely exhausted.

Tree planting is the stepping stone to forestry.

If you have a spot that will grow a tree, plant one. If you have an idle acre or two that is not busy, as all land should be, plant trees.

And if you do plant a tree, the American Tree Association of Washington wants to know about it.

May Take a Fight in London

By HENRY L. PARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, May 16—English boxing fans, according to Harry Lavene, London newspaperman, are quite worked up with the hope of seeing one of the leading American heavyweights in action this summer.

Lavene, in this country as the representative of Major Wilson, the Rickard of the British ring, is pouring words into the ears of American managers that they are missing the opportunity of the year if they do not take their boys to England.

London is now acting as the host to thousands of visitors to the Empire Exhibition and the promoters of the big carnival are so keen for American attraction features that Tex Austin and his famous troupe of bronk riders, bull-doggers and calf-ropers are to be imported in June, to show the British a real rodeo.

Jack Dempsey, of course, is first in demand, according to Lavene. In addition to the novelty of seeing a world's heavyweight champion do his stuff on the screen, the British have a great personal interest in the champion, he said. Dempsey made a tremendous hit when he was in England two years ago and the admiration which was once bestowed on Carpenter was transferred to the champion. Realizing the many reasons that Dempsey might have for not wanting to risk his title in England, the British promoters have abandoned any hope of being able to offer a purse not sufficient size to tempt Dempsey to take a chance on his $5,000,000 chin.

Major Wilson is prepared to make an offer to Tom Gibbons to meet Jack Bloomfield, generally recognized among his countrymen as the British champion. The major believes that a Gibbons-Bloomfield match would be almost as attractive a match as one in which Dempsey might appear, as there would be more of a contest factor in the match.

Because he went fifteen rounds with Dempsey without being knocked off his feet or seriously hurt, the British promoters feels that Gibbons is the best attraction in the world next to Dempsey. He figures also, that as Bloomfield and Gibbons are the same weight, it would be a real contest.

Bloomfield is the national pugilistic idol in England now and we are told that he has improved as a fighter tremendously since he was in this country four years ago trying to get matches in the middleweight class.

northern Indiana, and that the volume of the business has been handled satisfactory by the pool system.

"So you see, we don't have to go out of Indiana to see a demonstration of the pooling work," Mr. Crane stated, and in continuing, he said he couldn't see if other farm produce could be pooled, why it would not also be practical in the wheat industry.

He said it was the purpose of the Indiana Farm Bureau to put all commodities, on a paying basis, balancing the production accordingly, so that all crops would share in the returns. The state bureau, he declared, is the organization to keep the balance on production.

He called attention to the fact that a successful pool must be organized on six lines or fundamentals. There must first be a commodity basis, or a definite product to be pooled. It must be founded upon democratic principles, with each member having a vote. A contract that is binding, is the third important thing to be considered in the organization, he said.

The fourth thing to be considered, is that the organization must be big enough to handle the volume of business, and that the volume of business would command attention at the time when it is advisable to sell.

The fifth important thing is to have the proper management and good officers at the helm of the organization to pilot it through the work that is outlined. The sixth plan for a successful organization is to have it on a pooling basis from beginning to end.

Following Mr. Crane's talk, Mr. Martindale responded and made an appeal for help among the farmers, asking for volunteers to work with the men here in the townships, in order to provide an introduction, and to hasten the work of securing signers.

Several farmers responded to the appeal, and next week it is expected that every township will be completely covered. Mr. Crane also was called upon to review the contract that is to be signed, and an open forum was held in which the farmers were invited to ask questions.

The meeting was in charge of Fred Bell, county president of the farm bureau. A musical program preceded the speaking, in which William Polk gave cornet numbers, and was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Otto Moore.

Those who have signed the wheat pool contract since a list was published Wednesday, are as follows, according to Mr. Martindale: Allen Blackledge, Fred McFartridge, Oscar Rees, Justus Rees, William D. Rich-

PAID SMITH $250,000 SAYS GEORGE REMUS

"Bootleg King", Serving Sentence, Testifies Before Senate Investigating Committee

DONE BUSINESS AROUND HERE

Washington, May 16—George Remus, millionaire "bootleg king" of Cincinnati, Ohio, now serving sentence in Atlanta penitentiary, told the senate investigating committee today that he paid Jesse Smith $250,000 for liquor permits and "protection from prosecution."

Remus said he did not know with whom Smith "split" the money. "We did not discuss that point," he said. In addition to $250,000 paid to Smith, Remus said they had an agreement whereby each was to get about "$1.50 to $2.50 a case" on all liquor released. The amount of the "commission" he said depended upon the number of cases released.

After he was convicted for violation of the Volstead act in 1922, Remus said that Smith assured him that he could have the decision reversed because of his influence with the attorney general. This assurance was given him at Washington, Remus said, when he paid Smith $20,000. "The provisions of the Volstead law are a joke, the greatest perversion of justice in any country in the world," said Remus.

Remus evidently made frequent trips through Rushville, as it will be recalled that last summer his machine went into the ditch between Gwynneville and Morristown, and Shelby county officers captured a valuable cargo of liquor.

love between Christ and His church. I can't understand this—that a man who had 700 wives and 300 concubines, could love anyone of them so as to typify the love between Christ and the church.

"At any rate, it is a good little book for husbands and wives to read so as to learn how to say nice things to one another."

He said the book of Ruth was in the Bible not only because of the beautiful character it portrayed, but because Ruth was the great grandmother of David and the beginning of the great race of which we are now a part. One of the great things, Dr. Halley said, was the friendship between Ruth and Naomi, which it depicts.

"Here was a heathen girl won to the Jew God," he continued. "It is a wonderful lesson for us. If you are good to people, friendly to people, they will come to see your way in the end."

In closing he read the Epistle of Paul to Philemon because of the beautiful friendship it shows between Paul and Onesimus, a slave of Philemon's, who had run away with stolen money, but was induced by Paul to return.

ATTENDANCE WAS BEST IN HISTORY

ities, M. T. Nakarar of Japan, a student in the college, in a short interview gave a very interesting review of his life.

"I was born in a warrior family near a large castle near Kyoto. I was educated to become a warrior and expected to be one. My schooling started when I was five years old and I finished by going to the university. I then began to teach Japanese to the missionaries and", his face lighting up, he said, "became a Christian. I have been in this strange country less than one year and expect after I become educated to return to my native country as a missionary."

Mr. Clarke and Miss Sells, team of singing evangelists, who added wonderfully to the convention by their melodious voices and cordial manner, went from here to Pittsburg for a series of meetings. The quartette composed of them and Mr. and Mrs. Brook was one of the brightest spots in the convention.

A Word To Women

A hundred and twenty-one thousand women would comprise a vast army. Yet a canvass was recently made among more than that number of women who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for feminine ailments. The result proved that ninety-eight out of every hundred reported benefit from its use. This is most remarkable evidence of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the ills of womanhood, and should influence every sick and ailing woman to try it.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF SARAH C. RIDER

"I feel that in the Heavens above, The angels whispering to one another Can know among their burning terms of love

None so devotional as that of Mother."

Sarah C. Rider was the second of nine children born to James and Mary Finney Scott of Washington township, Rush County, Ind. She was born September 12, 1865.

On April 29, 1924, the community was saddened by the news of her death which occurred at Mayo Brothers, Rochester, Minnesota, at the age of 58 years, 7 months, and 17 days. The news was sad, the shock severe. They little knew the time was near To part with wife and mother dear. Could they have seen her at the last And held her dying hand

And heard her last sigh from her heart They might not feel so sad. They could not know the thoughts she had

They could not see her die They only knew she passed away And did not say good-bye.

Her home during her entire life was on the farm where she was born.

"A noble life though written not In any book of fame: Among the list of noted ones, None ever saw her name. Her neighborhood and household knew

The victories she had won. And all of them can testify How well her work was done."

On November 26, 1891, she was united in marriage to George Rider To their marriage were born ten children. Three have preceded her in death. She is survived by her husband, five sons, Earl, Harold, Elmer, Marion and Charlie all at home, two daughters, Mrs. Hazle Rider Beam, and Mrs. Mary Rider Ayers, four grand children, and two brothers, John P. and Joseph E. Scott. To all of these she leaves the sweet memory of her unselfish love and devotion to them.

The life of this good woman leaves an unmeasurable influence for good on all who knew her. "May light eternal shine upon her soul."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all the kind neighbors and friends who in any way assisted us during the death of our beloved wife and mother.

WILSON TRAPPED, EVIDENCE SHOWS

Farmer on Trial in Circuit Court on Charge of Selling Liquor to Robert Hinshaw

WM. HINSHAW SET THE TRAP

Defendant Fined Few Months Ago
On Charge of Illegal Possession of Liquor

Bert Wilson, a farmer living just northwest of this city on the Coleman
farm, was on trial today in the circuit court on a grand jury indictment,
charging him with the illegal
sale of liquor.

There was not much trouble experienced in obtaining a jury, and there were only a few witnesses summoned,
several of whom were character
witnesses for the defense.

The defendant is charged in the indictment with having sold a pint of liquor April 5 to Robert Hinshaw.
The defendant was "trapped" by William Hinshaw, father of the person to whom the alleged sale was made, according to the evidence presented today.

The parent accompanied his son to the farm residence where the liquor was alleged to have been bought, and he in turn presented the case to the grand jury.

Wilson formerly lived at 826 North Sexton street in this city, and was found guilty several months ago of unlawful possession of liquor, and received a stiff fine.

The jury today that was hearing
the case, consisted of the following twelve men: John Kirkpatrick,
Charles Caldwell, A. P. Waggoner,
J. E. Harrison, Oliver Norris, Elmer
Caldwell, Ott Meul, S. C. Kirkpatrick,
George Monjar, J. A. D. Waggoner,
Will Abernethie and Merrill Hall.

A suit on a contract was filed today
in court by Charles E. Redington against Adam Riebel, et al., in which the demand is for $750 judgment. The complaint alleges that a contract
was entered into between the parties,
in connection with the construction of the William Redenbaugh road, for the grading and building of culverts.

The suit alleges that the contract
price for this work was to be $3,130,
and was to be paid in installments as the work was completed. The suit alleges that the work has long since been completed and that the defendant owe him $600 on the contract, and with interest and costs, he is demanding judgment for $750.

Amanda M. Brown is plaintiff in a suit filed against Evaline Reed, et al., the complaint being to quiet the title to real estate and to set aside a deed. The property involved is located in Glenwood, according to the complaint, and there are several persons who are claiming an interest in it, which has caused the suit to be filed to quiet the title.

the assembly room of the court house,
to make the necessary arrangements.

The co-operation of all citizens to create more enthusiasm among the ex-service men of the county

and also the mothers of the World War veterans.

Arrangements are being made by the American Legion and War Mothers to prepare an interesting program

din Miller against her father and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Miller, all of this county, was

plaint filed in the Rush circuit court,
that her husband's parents had alien-

granted a new trial and the case

COLLEGE HEAD IN CLOSING ADDRESS

Charles T. Paul Tells Final Session of State Church Convention of Need For Missionaries

CRITICIZES U. S. LAW MAKERS

Says Congress Wants International Brotherhood Practiced as Long as Brothers Stay at Home

The College of Missions had charge of the closing program Thursday afternoon at the 55th annual state convention of Christian churches,
at the Main Street Christian church
and missionary work in all of its various phases was taken up and discussed, with the main address being delivered by Charles T. Paul, president of the college.

A delegation of 30 students from the college at Indianapolis came in a body for the afternoon program, and occupied seats on the rostrum.

The College of Missions quartet was on the program for several selections. Messages from the Orient were brought to the convention by two students at the college, Y. C. Lee speaking for his native home of China,
and T. Nakarar speaking for Japan.

Missionaries also were introduced,
and responses were made briefly by Rex Hopper for China and Miss Minnie Nicholson, representing India.

Dr. Paul in his address stated that his purpose was to put before the convention people the general background of the environment of the missionary, and the contrast that they encounter between their surroundings left in this country, and the surroundings that they encounter
in the mission field.

"What we want to do is to find out what is inside of the Oriental mind," he said, "and to interpret it into the people at home. Today we are discussing international brotherhood,
with the purpose of extending Christianity into all lands, but this can never be accomplished until we learn about brotherhood, and treat the

ALMOST TRAPPED IN BURNING HOUSE

Chicken Brooder in Upstairs Room
Almost Suffocates Family of William Kiser

FARMERS WORK HEROICALLY

The residence occupied by William Kiser, north of Rushville, and west of Raleigh, was threatened by fire
early this morning, and the family almost suffocated. A brooder that was placed in an upstairs room caught fire, and was making rapid headway, when the family was awakened by the dense smoke that filled the house.

The fire was discovered about two o'clock this morning, and neighbors rushed to their assistance. For a time it was believed that the dwelling would be destroyed, but the brooder was taken from the room
through a window, by using a rake.

After the smoke had settled, the neighbors formed a bucket brigade,
and managed to keep the flames confined to the one room. The loss includes 150 chickens, and practically all of the contents of the room that was on fire.

Dr. H. H. Halley Says Ecclesiastes Especially Shows Utter Vanity of All Things Earthly

READS SONG OF SOLOMON

Not Higher Critic, Reader Asserts,
But Can't Understand Why it is a Part of the Bible

Dr. H. H. Halley of Chicago read from memory four books of the Old Testament and one from the New Testament, at a union prayer meeting of churches at the Main Street
Christian church Thursday night,
having remained over for the meeting after attending the state convention of Christian church, where he had charge of the devotional exercises.

He proved to be the same Dr. Halley that he was when he conducted a two weeks union meeting here during the past winter, his voice and mode of speaking, and his personality having the same soothing effect and the same benign influence that it did when he was here before, and aroused a new and greater reverence
for the teachings of the Bible.

Dr. Halley read the books of Job,
Ecclesiastes, the Song of Solomon and Ruth from the Old Testament and Paul's Epistle to Philemon from the New Testament.

"Job is a discussion in poetic language of the problem of human suffering," he said. "Job's friends thought that if we were great sufferers, we were great sinners, but the lesson of the book is that Job, out of the patient endurance of his soul,
came to see God and was abundantly rewarded."

Dr. Halley stated that Ecclesiastes was in the Bible to show us the utter vanity of all things earthly aside from immortality. It was written by Solomon, he pointed out, who was powerful and had all of the money and pleasure that any man could have, but he did not know anything about the hereafter.

"The book is a sort of a mournful complaint," he continued. "It is in the Bible to show us that human nature is not exactly satisfied even with the best in this life."

Of the five poetic books in the Old Testament, he explained, Solomon wrote three—one of them the Song of Solomon.

"I am not a higher critic" Dr. Halley asserted, "but I can't explain why this book is there. It has commonly been taken as typical of the

Tire Is Lost, Found and Then Stolen From Finder

William Hardwick, who runs
a motor bus between Rushville
and Brookville, suffered the misfortune to lose a spare tire. That was bad enough in itself, but to be informed that it was found and a few hours later that it had been stolen from the finder, is adding insult to injury.

The tire dropped off the bus
near Laurel Wednesday. U. S.
Flarrity of the Citizens Motor Car company, Indianapolis, found it and told Charles Eller-
man, as he was passing through Rushville, of his find and left his address. Mr. Ellerman notified Mr. Hardwick, who had missed the tire, and he called Mr. Flarrity, who said that he would ship it to Rushville.

Two hours afterwards, Mr.
Flarrity called by telephone and said that when he went to the garage to get the lost tire, he found that it and his automobile
had been stolen.

DENIES BOND ISSUE FOR HARRISON STREET

State Tax Board Upholds Remonstrance Against Issuing Bonds in
The Sum of $85,920

PETITION FILED OCT. 9, 1920

The state tax board denied Rushville township permission to issue bonds in the sum of $85,920 to pave parts of Harrison and Eighth streets with concrete, according to word received here today.

The petition for the improvement
which was known as the Otto E.
Humes et al., highway, was first filed with the Rush county board of commissioners October 9, 1920, and asked for the paving of Harrison street from First to Eighth and of Eighth from Harrison to the Fort Wayne road, under the three-mile road law.

A remonstrance was filed against the bond issue for the improvement
the petition having been accepted by the local board, and it was sustained by the state tax board, after a hearing, in 1921.

The effort to have the two streets
paved was revived in 1923 and a new bond ordinance was published according to law. A notice to bidders was also filed and the contract was let to Lawrence and Ennis of Arlington. Another remonstrance was filed against the issuing of the bonds

ATTENDANCE WAS BEST IN HISTORY

Program at State Christian Church
Convention Ending Friday Evening
Also Most Inspiring

Visitors Impressed by Cordial Treatment And Smooth Way in Which Entertainment Plans Worked

By Friday evening practically all of the delegates and visitors, here
for the annual convention of Indiana Christian churches, had departed and all of them carried along the most pleasant memories of their stay Rushville and the cordial hospitality which they met.

The following comment of C. W.
Caulle of Indianapolis, state corresponding secretary, was typical:

"The attendance has been the best of any convention we have ever held
and the program the most inspiring.
The hospitality has been wonderful."
This thought seemed to be in the mind of everyone who attended the convention. The words were on many lips.

None received or was entitled to more congratulations and praise
than Mrs. Martha Grindle and members of her registration committee,
who were responsible for the smooth way in which the entertainment of visitors in Rushville homes was accomplished.

This committee carefully planned
the assignment of guests and the utmost care that was used resulted in the general accord which prevailed
among the convention visitors.

The Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the host church, who extended the invitation to the convention at Frankfort last year, to meet here
this year, and who bore a large share of the responsibility in completing arrangements for this year's convention, said that "Loyalty" was the thing that spelled success for the Rushville church. He said:

"The convention has run without faction and without friction. The great task we have undertaken and done can be accomplished by any one of our churches if they take for their watchword the one word that has spelled success for us. Put that word into our congregations and our brotherhood and we win. That word is 'Loyalty.'"

Included in the thirty-one visitors from the College of Missions in Indianapolis who attended the convention here yesterday were a number of interesting speakers and personal-

B. Y. P. U. HOLDS RALLY HERE

Connersville, Cambridge City, Newcastle Delegations Present

Delegations from Connersville, Newcastle and Cambridge City attended the rally of the East Central Association of the Baptist Young Peoples Union held Thursday evening in the First Baptist church in this city, the local B. Y. P. U. acting as the hosts.

Supper was served in the basement of the church for the visiting delegations and was followed by a splendid program. The Rev. Mr.
Spangler of Indianapolis was present and gave a splendid talk. A musical program was given preceding the address including a violin solo, by Miss Edna Lucas, accompanied on the piano by Miss Mary Bates, and a duet by Mrs. Edna Clarkson and Miss Mildred Stewart.

FARM BUREAU IS A BALANCE WHEEL

Perry Crane, State Secretary, Says Organization's Purpose is to Keep Balance on Production

Tells of Success of Pools to Sell Farm Products—Wheat Pool Contracts Being Signed Here

The Indiana Farm Bureau is the organization which has for its purpose keeping a balance on production, it was declared by Perry Crane, secretary of the state bureau, who addressed a crowd of Rush county farmers Thursday night at the Graham high school building, in the interest of the wheat pool.

William H. Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau federation, who was scheduled to speak, was unable to be here, and Mr. Crane, responded in his place.

The wheat pool campaign was launched in Rush county Tuesday, when W. T. Martindale, district manager, arrived with three assistants to get farmers to sign up on the pool, and an effort is being made to have 40 percent of the Indiana
acreage signed for the pool by May 24.

The movement in this county is making rapid progress, it was announced at the meeting last night,
and the plan of the system was presented, and the endorsement of the state federation was made by Mr.
Crane, the secretary, in his message to the farmers.

The fault with the farming business today, Mr. Crane stated, was the economic phase, or the system
of marketing what the farmers raise. A survey of countries, parts of countries or states where this condition has been solved, has been studied by the state bureau, Mr.
Crane said, and where successful, it has been found that people work together.

"Those are sections of the country," he said, "where the people know the meaning of co-operation—and they practice it." He pointed out the example of Denmark, where the practice of co-operation in all business, has been carried on for generations, and the co-operative plan is more of a habit, than anything else, not only in farming, but in industry, banking and schools,
where all people work together under a systematic plan.

Then coming closer to home, Mr.
Crane cited the value of the co-operative marketing plan used by the California fruit growers, which at first was a complete failure, but which has overcome the mistakes,
and today has caused the country
to be a leading factor in the business.

Mr. Crane also showed how the co-operative plan had worked in Oregon, where the apple growers had perfected an organization to market their big crops, and this plan had been a decided success.

The speaker then told about the onion pool in northern Indiana,
where a successful organization is marketing the output for several counties, and has prevented a serious loss to the farmers. He stated that one-fifth of the late onions raised in this country, come from

HACK IS CHOSEN DISTRICT HEAD

Shelbyville Attorney Is Re-Elected Without Opposition as Democratic
District Chairman

CONVENTION HERE TODAY

Leaders From District Formed Association With Several Prominent Politicians Present

Charles Hack, attorney of Shelbyville, was re-elected district chairman for the Sixth district, when the county chairmen of the democratic party, met here this afternoon to perfect the district organization.

Prominent democrats were here
for the afternoon session, and several speeches were made following the business period and election of officers. The meeting was held in the assembly room of the court house, and a large crowd of democrats from over the district was here.

Walter Myers of Shelbyville was placed in as secretary for the meeting today, and before the election of officers, Frank McFall of Richmond acted as chairman.

Mr. Hack resumed the chairmanship, after he was elected without opposition.

The convention of chairmen also elected Mrs. J. F. Rade of Liberty as district chairman, and she responded with a short talk. The election of a secretary and treasurer for the district organization was left in the hands of Mr. Hack, the district chairman.

All eight counties in the district
were represented with their chairmen, and the following were here:
Horace Wilson, Hancock; Frank M.
McFall of Wayne; Chester M. De-Witt, Henry; Fred Brown, Rush;
William F. Flack, Franklin; Jess E.
Stevens, Union; Frank W. Fagel, Shelby and James A. Clifton, Payette.

The chairmen also went on record pledging their support to Walter S. Chambers of Newcastle, for re-election as state chairman.

Mr. Chambers was among the politicians present, and he made a short response, following the pledge of the Sixth District organization.

Richmond, and the successful nominee in the democratic primary for

MORGAN STREET WORK DELAYED BY THE I. & C.

Andrews Asphalt Co., Ships Steam Shovel Because No Effort is Made to Remove Tracks

MORGAN STREET IS BLOCKED

A delay in the construction of Morgan street paving is forecasted,
following a decision of the Andrews Asphalt paving company, the contractors, who today shipped the steam shovel from the city to another job that is waiting construction.

The trouble seems to lie in the fact that the Indianapolis and Cincinnati traction company is making no effort to remove their tracks and comply with an ordinance which was agreed upon beforehand, that one of the tracks would be removed, and the single track laid in the center of the street.

The paving company has finished excavating all of the street, excepting between the tracks. The paving company has made rapid progress with the work, and has meant business since first starting. At the present time they are laying the concrete base on the south end of Morgan street, and can only finish three blocks until they reach the delay, caused by the car tracks. It is understood that unless something is done by that time, that the street will be left blocked until action is taken by the car company to continue with the paving.

The contractors have several big jobs ahead
of them this summer, and it is understood they do not intend to remain here long if the work is held up. The entire street could be finished within a month, with the proper co-operation, it was stated today.

Tries Kellogg's Bran—restores health after 12 years of intense suffering

Mr. Firth writes that he suffered for 12 years from constipation and his friend for 10 years—a total of 22 years' suffering permanently relieved by Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled.

Gentlemen: For 12 years I had been troubled with indigestion caused mostly by constipation. Until about a year ago, I could suffer from 4 to 20 weeks at a time.

I happened to see your Krumbled Bran in a store, purchased a package and got almost immediate relief. I am still eating the Krumbled Bran every day.

The most wonderful results obtained with your Krumbled Bran I will now relate. A gentleman who has been taking medicine for about 20 years for constipation

could not find anything to give him relief. Three weeks ago I advised him to try Krumbled Bran, as I had told him what wonderful results I had gotten from it. The gentleman in question purchased a box, and he told me that for the first time in ten years he is regular without taking medicine.

Yours for success,
William Firth, Jr., 56 Volga St., Merchautville, N. J.

Eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to relieve the most chronic case of constipation, or your grocer returns your money. Eat two table-spoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. The flavor is delicious. Try it in the recipes on every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

Your money invested in Building Association No. 10 guarantees you absolute safety of principal and the opportunity for large returns.

We boldly claim that next to Government Bonds, there is no safer investment than an account in a conservatively managed Building Association. Successfully operated since March 3d, 1889, over 35 years, we measure up to that standard. Come in and talk it over with us.

Small deposits at regular intervals will run your money into large amounts, and loans to investors safeguard your money as it all goes into small homes.

If you need money, you can withdraw it at any time.

Child-birth

WHEN the little one arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend," Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa.

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."—Mrs. "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait until today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Reginald Co., 23-75, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE CLEARING WEATHER

Racing Drivers Entered in 500-Mile Speedway Event Get First Real Practice Runs

HENRY FORD TO REFEREE RACE

Indianapolis, May 15.—Racing drivers entered for the 500-mile event at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway on Decoration Day today were taking advantage of clearing weather to get their first real practice runs around the big brick oval.

A gloomy and disgusted crowd of drivers shivered in unheated garages yesterday and watched the rain pour down.

The announcement that Henry Ford would referee the race was the one event of the day.

The drivers generally are of the opinion that the race this year will set a better time than the 1923 race. Last year for the first time the 122-inch displacement engines were tried out.

The race revealed numerous mechanical deficiencies in the engines of smaller displacement. The running time was slowed up and more cars than ever before broke down and went back to the pits.

Most of these mechanical weaknesses according to drivers, have been overcome and the pace this year is expected to be fast and furious.

TRY TO RECONCILE RIVALS

Stephenson Faction Asked to Attend Meeting of Ku Klux Klan

Indianapolis, Ind., May 16.—A possible effort to reconcile the rival factions of the Ku Klux Klan in Indiana was seen here today in the order of D. C. Stephenson directing his faction to attend a meeting called here for Sunday by Dr. H. W. Evans, imperial wizard and leader of the faction opposing Stephenson.

Stephenson sent orders to officers of each organization to attend the meeting by the rival leaders.

It was also regarded as possible that Evans had planned to coup to win over Stephenson's following and deprive him of his present sway over Indiana Klan affairs.

yellow people as brothers." He criticized congress for only recently passing the immigration bill forbidding the people of Japan from moving here, and the speaker referred to this act as being contrary to the doctrine of international brotherhood.

The law makers, he said, want international brotherhood practiced, as long as the "brothers" remain on the opposite shore, some 10,000 miles distant.

Dr. Paul stated that he recently visited the orient, and gained much valuable information from his trip. He said that he could easily see the effect that western civilization is having on the eastern, and that this was clearly visible on the ship that took him across.

He said that the ship carried a cargo of 800 tons of American made cigarettes for the orient, and that a great quantity of this shipment was highly colored cigarettes, especially appealing to the children.

There were musicians on the ship, he said, and also American lecturers, who were going over to China and Japan to spread their messages of intellect, and all of these American cultures, were being shifted from the west to the east, and were forming a part of the new civilization for the orient.

On that same ship, he continued, was the all star American baseball club, which played throughout the orient, and added that America was doing her part to spread athletics. He recalled witnessing a contest for tryouts in Japan for the Olympics, and stated that he could see the western influence on physical training, which was being worked into the eastern atmosphere.

"This intellectual aspect," he said, "is also visible in the fact that the English language is gradually taking the place of their native tongues, and education among the children is far more advanced today." He stated that there are 40,000 college graduates in Japan, and he told about the

In discussing the orient, he also spoke about the Philippines, and the growth that they have made in the past 25 years, due to the influence of America. When the islands were under Spanish control, he said there were less than 400 schools and less than 2,000 teachers.

Today, 25 years after the United States assumed control, the school system has increased to 6,741 public schools, with an enrollment of a million and a quarter children. The government spends ten millions each year on education, he said.

All of these transfigurations, due to the transfer of western intellect and influence in the orient, he said, has made the work of the missionaries doubly hard. In the Philippines he said, the natives are clamoring for independence, and American missionaries must know how to handle the situation.

He stated that it was not surprising that the natives wanted an independent country, because they were being educated with American books and ideals, and that in their schools their histories had taught them the struggles of America, and the views of the lives of great Americans had buried their influence with them. They want a republic, the same as any country, Dr. Paul declared.

Missionaries are confronted with many questions concerning the Christian faith, which makes it difficult, because natives have a tendency to want to be convinced, and have to be shown, before admitting their faith, the speaker said.

The reading and writing in China have been improved in recent years, he said, and that country is becoming a part of the intellectual world. They have set about in China, he continued, to humanizing their literature all of which is the result of the western efforts upon the oriental minds.

The industrial aspect of Japan has changed according to the speaker and today that country has 23,000 factories and industries that are patterned after western models, and shows a rapid growth in that direction.

Even the labor element has worked its way into the minds of those people, he said, and the laboring man of Japan is beginning to think for himself, and associates in a broader sense with the capitalists. There are 671 labor unions in Japan, which will soon be dictating the wages and other business problems, he said.

Lastly, Dr. Paul asserted, there is a religious ferment that is traveling in the east from the west, and that Christianity is taking its place among them. The work, he said, is not accomplished in detail by any means, and that the appeal for more missionaries was never as urgent as it is today.

The speaker said that Buddhism was not dead in Japan, and that there were thousands of them left for the Christian missionaries, to convert, and that the work before them was extensive.

HACK IS CHOSEN DISTRICT HEAD

Erastus McDaniel of Shelbyville, the nominee for join senator from Rush, Fayette and Shelby counties, was here and was called upon for a speech.

Finley Gray of Connersville, formerly the congressman from this district, was taking an active part in the organization work, and was mingling with the district politicians. He was also expected to make a speech later in the day.

The meeting here was absent of any friction, and all elections went off with smoothness and without opposition.

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., May 15—Gladys Ellis, confessed slayer of Mrs. Lois Richards, teacher at the Indiana 'woman's prison' collapsed twice while on the witness stand in her trial in criminal court on a charge of murdering Miss Richards.

The girl collapsed once on one direct examination and again on cross examination.

"Now just tell the jury in your own way what happened when you and Miss Richards were struggling", Prosecutor Remy asked on cross examination.

The girl stared at him a moment, shrieked, and collapsed in the witness chair. Court was adjourned to permit physicians to revive her.

The case may go to the jury late today. The defense claims the girl was insane at the time of the murder.

Rush County Hospitality

The people of Rush county have much for which to be congratulated because of the splendid way in which they cared for visitors in this city
during the past week, who came for the 50th annual convention of the Christian churches of Indiana.Every person who attended the church meeting will always have a very pleasant remembrance of the Rushville convention. The hospitality was of the character that leaves a lasting impression."The hospitality has been wonderful," said C. W. Cauble, corresponding secretary of the Indiana church organization. "The attendance has been the best of any convention we ever held."These were the words that were heard on every side. The total absence of friction in the assignment of guests and the cordial treatment they received in Rushville homes gave them a most favorable idea of Rush county and her people.Our guests had an opportunity to see the beautiful homes, the well kept premises, and to sense the general feeling of civic consciousness that expresses itself in pride of the home and its surroundings.They also had a chance to get a glimpse of some of the commodious rural homes of Rush county and the rich, fertile ground in which Rush county takes just pride. They rode over some of Rush county's smooth roads and many of our guests decided that this was as near paradise as they could get on earth.The Rev. L. C. Howe, pastor of the chickens aren't hatched yet,

but they're already counted.The tally-sheet of the advance count up at Democratic national headquarters certainly does look discouraging for the Republicans!Out of 48 states, the Democratic done-sheet for the coming election
concedes the party of Lincoln and Garfield and Roosevelt just 16.
That many, with a total of just 96
electoral votes, is conceded the G. O. P.Of the remaining 32 states and 435 electoral votes, 23 states with 349 votes are confidently set down
as safely Democratic.Fifteen states having 186 votes are put into the "doubtful" column.
These are the states where the battle royal will be waged to insure the additional 17 votes needed—
and to pile up a safely substantial majority.As evidence of Democratic "cocksureness," one notes that in addition to the "Solid South" this dope sheet—made when the Democratic candidate is still anybody's bet—places in that party's "certain" column Arizona, Delaware, Indiana, Maryland, Missouri, Montana, New Jersey, New Mexico,
Ohio and West Virginia.These states, with their even 100 electoral votes, will, however, be as confidently claimed by Republicans.Similarly, Republicans smile at Democratic "nerve" in presuming to list as "doubtful" the results in California, Connecticut, Illinois,
Kansas, Massachusetts, Nebraska, and Washington. Democrats, however, meet smile with smile and maintain they have an excellent fighting chance not only in these normally Republican strongholds,
but also in Colorado, Minnesota,
Nevada, North Dakota, Rhode Island and South Dakota.New York, they admit, is too temperamental to risk placing in any but the doubtful column, although they are hopeful. And if Republicans can get any satisfaction out of Wisconsin's probable vote, the G. O. P. is welcome to it!To no small extent, states set over into the "doubtful" column have been so placed because of the expectation of a schism in Republican ranks, led by Senator La Follette and aided and abetted by such
"radicals" as Brookhart, Norris,
Ladd, Frazier, and Congressman
Frear and Nelson.In event an independent or third party campaign is waged in midwest agricultural states, Democrats count on it merely splitting
the normal Republican vote and allowing them to walk away with the electors.That, however, is not the view taken by either the regular or independent groups in the G. O. P.
As they see it, the seeds of insurgency are sufficiently ripe in half a dozen northwestern states to enable a militant independent ticket
to pile up an actual majority against both old parties.In which case, the total of 249
now claimed by Democrats as reasonably secure, might be the maximum they could win. Which would be 17 short of election.And the Republicans could carry,
in addition to the 10 states conceded by the Democrats, California,
Colorado, Connecticut, Illinois,
Massachusetts and New York, with Kansas, Nevada and Rhode Island thrown in, and still be 26 shy of enough votes to elect.Even throwing in Ohio's 24
votes, as a generous concession,
the election might still be blocked
by the ballots of Minnesota, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Washington and Wisconsin.An independent victory in even one or two of these states might be sufficient to effect the deadlock
and throw the election into Congress. To such extreme extremes

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero—Cuyler, Pittsburgh rookie outfielder, singled with the bases filled and two down in the ninth inning and pushed over the run that beat the Phils 4 to 3.

Jack Fournier hit two homers and helped the Robins beat the Cards, 6 to 3.

Babe Ruth hit his ninth homer but Sisler and Williams got one each for the Browns and the Yanks lost 2 to 1. The Browns are within a half game of first place.

Adolf Lague, instead of pitching, orated with the umpire and finally was ejected, the Braves beating the Reds for the second time, 4 to 0.

After breaking their losing streak of 12 straight, the Athletics fell back into the habit and lost to the Tigers 12 to 6.

Willie Kahn knocked in two runs with a double and scored another one giving the White Sox a 4 to 2 victory over the Red Sox.

Joe Martina, 34 years old Washington rookie, weakened in the eighth inning when the Indians scored five runs that gave them a 6 to 4 victory.

May Take a Fight in London

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, May 16—English boxing fans, according to Harry Laven, London newspaperman, are quite worked up with the hope of seeing one of the leading American heavyweights in action this summer.

Laven, in this country as the representative of Major Wilson, the Rickard of the British ring, is pouring words into the ears of American managers that they are missing the opportunity of the year if they do not take their boys to England.

London is now acting as the host to thousands of visitors to the Empire Exhibition and the promoters of the big carnival are so keen for American attraction features that Tex Austin and his famous troupe of bronk riders, bull-doggers and calf-ropers are to be imported in June, to show the British a real rodeo.

Jack Dempsey, of course, is first in demand, according to Laven. In addition to the novelty of seeing a world's heavyweight champion do his stuff on the screen, the British have a great personal interest in the champion, he said. Dempsey made a tremendous hit when he was in England two years ago and the admiration which was once bestowed on Carpentier was transferred to the champion. Realizing the many reasons that Dempsey might have for not wanting to risk his title in England, the British promoters have abandoned any hope of being able to offer a purse not sufficient size to tempt Dempsey to take a chance on his $5,000,000 chin.

Major Wilson is prepared to make an offer to Tom Gibbons to meet Jack Bloomfield, generally recognized among his countrymen as the British champion. The major believes that a Gibbons-Bloomfield match would be almost as attractive a match as one in which Dempsey might appear, as there would be more of a contest factor in the match.

Because he went fifteen rounds with Dempsey without being knocked off his feet or seriously hurt, the British promoters feels that Gibbons is the best attraction in the world next to Dempsey. He figures also that as Bloomfield and Gibbons are the same weight, it would be a real contest.

Bloomfield is the national pugilistic idol in England now and we are told that he has improved as a fighter tremendously since he was in this country four years ago trying to get matches in the middleweight class.

northern Indiana, and that the volume of the business has been handled satisfactory by the pool system.

"So you see, we don't have to go out of Indiana, to see a demonstration of the pooling work," Mr. Crane stated, and in continuing, he said he couldn't see if other farm produce could be pooled, why it would not also be practical in the wheat industry.

He said it was the purpose of the Indiana Farm Bureau to put all commodities, on a paying basis, balancing the production accordingly, so that all crops would share in the returns. The state bureau, he declared, is the organization to keep the balance on production.

He called attention to the fact that a successful pool must be organized on six lines or fundamentals. There must first be a commodity basis, or a definite product to be pooled. It must be founded upon democratic principles, with each member having a vote. A contract that is binding, is the third important thing to be considered in the organization, he said.

The fourth thing to be considered, is that the organization must be big enough to handle the volume of business, and that the volume of business would command attention at the time when it is advisable to sell.

The fifth important thing is to have the proper management and good officers at the helm of the organization to pilot it through the work that is outlined. The sixth plan for a successful organization is to have it on a pooling basis from beginning to end.

Following Mr. Crane's talk, Mr. Martindale responded and made an appeal for help among the farmers, asking for volunteers to work with the men here in the townships, in order to provide an introduction, and to hasten the work of securing signers.

Several farmers responded to the appeal, and next week it is expected that every township will be completely covered. Mr. Crane also was called upon to review the contract that is to be signed, and an open forum was held in which the farmers were invited to ask questions.

The meeting was in charge of Fred Bell, county president of the farm bureau. A musical program preceded the speaking, in which William Polk gave cornet numbers, and was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Otto Moore.

Those who have signed the wheat pool contract since a list was published Wednesday, are as follows, according to Mr. Martindale: Allen Blackledge, Fred McFarridge, Oscar Rees, Justus Rees, William D. Rich-

PAID SMITH $250,000 SAYS GEORGE REMUS

"Bootleg King", Serving Sentence, Testifies Before Senate Investigating Committee

Washington, May 16—George Remus, millionaire "bootleg king" of Cincinnati, Ohio, now serving sentence in Atlanta penitentiary, told the senate investigating committee today that he paid Jesse Smith $250,000 for liquor permits and "protection from prosecution."

Remus said he did not know with whom Smith "split" the money. "We did not discuss that point," he said. In addition to $250,000 paid to Smith, Remus said they had an agreement whereby each was to get about "$1.50 to $2.50 a case" on all liquor released. The amount of the "commission" he said depended upon the number of cases released.

After he was convicted for violation of the Volstead act in 1922, Remus said that Smith assured him that he could have the decision reversed because of his influence with the attorney general. This assurance was given him at Washington, Remus said, when he paid Smith $20,000. "The provisions of the Volstead law are a joke, the greatest perversion of justice in any country in the world," said Remus.

Remus evidently made frequent trips through Rushville, as it will be recalled that last summer his machine went into the ditch between Gwynneville and Morristown, and Shelby county officers captured a valuable cargo of liquor.

love between Christ and His church. I can't understand this—that a man who had 700 wives and 389 concubines, could love anyone of them so as to typify the love between Christ and the church.

"At any rate, it is a good little book for husbands and wives to read so as to learn how to say nice things to one another."

He said the book of Ruth was in the Bible not only because of the beautiful character it portrayed, but because Ruth was the great grandmother of David and the beginning of the great race of which we are now a part. One of the great things, Dr. Halley said, was the friendship between Ruth and Naomi, which it depicts.

"Here was a heathen girl won to the Jew God," he continued. "It is a wonderful lesson for us. If you are good to people, friendly to people, they will come to see your way in the end."

In closing he read the Epistle of Paul to Philemon because of the beautiful friendship it shows between Paul and Onesimus, a slave of Philemon's, who had run away with stolen money, but was induced by Paul to return.

ities. M. T. Nakarar of Japan, a student in the college, in a short interview gave a very interesting review of his life.

"I was born in a warrior family near a large castle near Kyoto. I was educated to become a warrior and expected to be one. My schooling started when I was five years old and I finished by going to the university. I then began to teach Japanese to the missionaries and," his face lighting up, he said, "became a Christian. I have been in this strange country less than one year and expect after I become educated to return to my native country as a missionary."

Mr. Clarke and Miss Sells, team of singing evangelists, who added wonderfully to the convention by their melodious voices and cordial manner, went from here to Pittsburgh for a series of meetings. The quartette composed of them and Mr. and Mrs. Brock was one of the brightest spots in the convention.

About forty members of the local council, Knights of Columbus, went to Shelbyville last night to witness the conferring of the first degree. Five local candidates were initiated. Refreshments were served.

A Word To Women

A hundred and twenty-one thousand women would comprise a vast army. Yet a canvass was recently made among more than that number of women who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for feminine ailments. The result proved that ninety-eight out of every hundred reported benefit from its use. This is most remarkable evidence of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the ills of womanhood, and should influence every sick and ailing woman to try it.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF SARAH C. RIDER

"I feel that in the Heavens above, The angels whispering to one another Can know among their burning terms of love None so devotional as that of Mother."

Sarah C. Rider was the second of nine children born to James and Mary Finney Scott of Washington township, Rush County, Ind. She was born September 12, 1865.

On April 20, 1924, the community was saddened by the news of her death which occurred at Mayo Brothers, Rochester, Minnesota, at the age of 58 years, 7 months, and 17 days. The news was sad, the shock severe. They little knew the time was near To part with wife and mother dear. Could they have seen her at the last And held her dying hand And heard the last sigh from her heart They might not feel so sad. They could not know the thoughts she had. They could not see her die. They only knew she passed away And did not say good-bye.

Her home during her entire life was on the farm where she was born.

"A noble life though written not In any book of fame: Among the list of noted ones, None ever saw her name. Her neighborhood and household knew The victories she had won. And all of them can testify How well her work was done."

On November 26, 1891, she was united in marriage to George Rider. To their marriage were born ten children. Three have preceded her in death. She is survived by her husband, five sons, Earl, Harold, Elmer, Marion and Charlie all at home, two daughters, Mrs. Hazle Rider Beam, and Mrs. Mary Rider Ayers, four grand children, and two brothers, John P. and Joseph E. Scott. To all of these she leaves the sweet memory of her unselfish love and devotion to them.

The life of this good woman leaves an immeasurable influence for good on all who knew her. "May light eternal shine upon her soul."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all the kind neighbors and friends who in any way assisted us during the death of our beloved wife and mother. GEORGE RIDER and FAMILY

Beauty for Girls

Youth for women — Let me show you how
BY EDNA WALLACE HOPPER

For 40 years I have been a famous beauty. Now, at a grandmother's age, I am the most talked-about woman in America as an example of perennial youth.

The reason is this: My mother and I, many years ago, searched the world to find the best beauty helps in existence. They multiplied my beauty and I became the rage. They have kept my beauty to a grand old age.

I am convinced that these helps can bring like results to millions. And I have decided to enable all to get them.

Easy Simple Ways

I do about what you do. But the difference is that I employ the best helps science knows.

You use clay, perhaps. Any woman who omits it does herself injustice. But you use crude and muddy clays while I quit years ago. I use a modern clay, white, refined and dainty. A clay perfected by 20 years of scientific study.

Mine I call my White Youth Clay. It is fully ten times as efficient as ordinary clays. The new complexion that it brings amazes and delights. Many women in 30 minutes seem to drop ten years.

Clay brings rosy, clear complexions. It takes out the causes of blackheads and blemishes. It firms the skin, combats all lines and wrinkles. The women who employ it stand out in every crowd.

But my White Youth Clay is a super clay. The last word in facial clays. It brings multiplied results. The cost is 50 cents and $1.

The Supreme Creams

You need cream, no doubt. I spent a fortune to secure the best cold cream and vanishing cream in existence.

My Youth Cream contains products of both lemon and strawberry. Also all the best that science knows to foster and feed the skin texture.

I apply it after my clay. Also as a night cream. Also daytimes as a powder base. It is ever-present, to whiten, soften and preserve my skin. I have never known another cream which brought any like results. It costs 60c.

I clean my skin with My Facial Youth. That is a liquid cleanser which I found long ago in France. Now leading beauty experts everywhere employ it.

It contains no animal, no vegetable fat. The skin cannot absorb it. But it enters the pores and cleans the skin to the depths. Nothing else in all the world can clean the skin as this does.

My Facial Youth sells for 75 cents. The identical formula, offered by great beauty experts, is everywhere, sold at $3.

For Beautiful Hair

My hair is my greatest glory. It is thick and lustrous, and grows fine every year. Never have I known a falling hair, dandruff or gray hair.

This is due to my Hair Youth, which France perfected for me. I apply it with an eye dropper, directly to the scalp. It keeps the scalp clean and hair roots stimulated. I have brought beautiful hair to countless friends by giving them this method. It costs 50 cents and $1.

All druggists and toilet counters supply the beauty helps I use. Go try them. Each will bring you rich rewards. I am very glad to enable you to get them. Edna Wallace Hopper, 536 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago.

MOVIES

Harold Lloyd Coming

Harold Lloyd's latest feature Pathe-comedy, "Girl Shy," which will be seen Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week at the Princess theatre, introduces him in the role of a bashful country boy who is trying to make a secret study of women. It is said that his adventures with the fair sex offer greater opportunities for laughter than any of the previous Lloyd pictures. "Girl Shy" also includes in its cast Johnny Ralston, who plays opposite the spectacled comedian, as she did in his last success, "Why Worry?"

"The Thrill Chaser"

Rome fell in half a minute at Universal City.

That isn't history but it's great comedy—and something of a thrill.

Edward Sedgwick, directing Hoot Gibson in "The Thrill Chaser," the Universal-Gibson special coming to the Mystic theatre today directed Hobart Henley, famous director of "The Flirt," "The Abysmal Brute" and "A Lady of Quality," in important scenes pertaining to an imaginary production, "The Last Days of Pompeii." Henley was supposed to be directing Reginald Denny and Laura La Plante in the scenes.

The finish of the sequence was a grand crash of the set, a reproduction of a Roman palace with Vesuvius in the background. It was elaborate and pretty. Gibson as the cowboy hero, an extra at three dollars a day, was supposed to catch the spear which he was carrying, in a rope—a very important rope—pulling creation down around him.

Castle Reopens Today

The feminine lover of sweets who also fears obesity may learn much from Ruth Clifford, the beautiful feminine player of "April Showers," showing at the Castle theatre today and Saturday.

For Miss Clifford has compromised with the most feared of woman's enemies by adopting certain styles of wearing apparel that she says insure a slender figure regardless of one's indulgence in pastries. And that, as any woman knows, is some accomplishment.

"I solved the problem by planning unusual costumes," explains Miss Clifford. "I don't have to give up nearly as much cake and candy and cream now that I have found how to disguise a tendency toward stoutness."

EMPLOYED AT HUNTINGTON

C. B. Worth, who formerly was the pianist at the Vaudeville Theatre in this city, is pianist at the new Colonial Theatre, which opened May 1st at Huntington, Ind.

Just Like a Man

"My husband suffered for several years with stomach trouble. He often had colic attacks that put him to bed. But a man can't stand the pains that a woman can. He thought he was going to die and the doctors didn't seem to help him any. Like a drowning man grasping for a straw he tried Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which a nurse told us about, and now he is entirely well and eats anything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere. —Advertisement

What Makes Your Clothes Wear Out?

It isn't the actual wear and tear on your clothes that makes them wear out so easily. It is the dirt in the fabric that is constantly grinding and cutting into the cloth.

No suit or other article of wearing apparel can give satisfactory service when it is saturated with filth. Bring it in or let us call for it.
